The NTIA Night Time Economy Summit 2024 is an event hosted in Greater Manchester on the 8th and 9th February. The summit hosts over 200 speakers across the three days including international speakers and partners across the hospitality sector.

Panel Discussion

A panel question and answer session will be taking place on the 9th where representatives from the National Counter Terrorism Security Office (NaCTSO), Home Office, Security Industry Authority will be discussing terrorism safety and security issues which could affect the night time industry.

This is a unique opportunity to hear from experts about how we develop the counter terrorism Protect & Prepare policy, and how it can be put into practice. Submit your questions for the panel via the QR code below or our link here

Workshop

NaCTSO will also be hosting specially designed interactive workshop which will include discussions focused around:

- Terrorism threat in Night Time Economy
- What NaCTSO can do to support your business
- Legislation and Policy

The workshop is being held at the event on the 9th Feb. Further details of the workshop will be available at the event and via the NaCTSO stand, however if you would like to contact us directly, please email the Business Engagement Unit at NaCTSOMailbox-EngagementUnit@met.police.uk – we look forward to seeing you on the day!

Stand

NaCTSO's Business Engagement Unit will be available at an exhibition stand where guests can come and talk about NaCTSO's commitment to Martyn's Law, and find out how NaCTSO are supporting businesses and organisations just like yours, to protect your customers, staff and visitors from terrorism.

The team look forward to welcoming you to the stand where you can learn more about the ProtectUK platform, ACT Awareness products and ask any questions you may have.
