There are two weeks to go until NaCTSO attends Security and Policing 2025 at Farnborough International Exhibition and Conference Centre from 11-13 March 2025.

Visit the NaCTSO Business Engagement Unit at our stand in the Government Security Zone. Learn about our resources and guidance and discover how we help businesses and organisations like yours protect customers, staff, and visitors from terrorist attacks.

The National Canine Training and Accreditation Scheme – Private Security Industry (NCTAS-P) will also be in attendance.

Neil Solliss and Richard Lambert will be joining the Home Office, representing NaCTSO as a key partner in NCTAS-P throughout the week and will be joined by front line SME's, including NCTAS-P handlers and dogs amongst conference attendees.

As well as being available at our exhibition stand, NaCTSO will be providing a range of keynotes and sessions across the three days.

Hosted by the Home Office's Joint Security & Resilience Centre (JSaRC), Security & Policing offers a world-class opportunity to meet and discuss the latest advances in delivering national security and resilience with UK and overseas Government officials and senior decision makers across the law enforcement and security sectors.

If you are interested in attending this conference, you can still register for a ticket via the following link Security and Policing 2025 - Apply to attend

There is no general admittance to Security and Policing and all visitors and exhibitors are subject to Home Office approval.
