ProtectUK

Palestine Action proscribed

ProtectUK publication date
07/07/2025

Palestine Action has been proscribed under Section 3 of the Terrorism Act 2000.
This makes it a criminal offence to be a member of this group or to invite or recklessly express support for them.

The legislation came into force at 0001hrs on Saturday 5 July 2025.

The Home Secretary confirmed her intentions to proscribe Palestine Action in a written ministerial statement on 23 June 2025. You can read more about Palestine Action in the Home Secretary's statement on the decision to proscribe Palestine Action.

Businesses concerned about the activities of Palestine Action should consider the following security and safety advice:

- Countering sabotage| NPSA
- Safeguarding your business during public events
- CT Crime Prevention Toolkit | ProtectUK
- The Blue Book: A Guide to Personal Security
- Calling for help
- Protection of security officers | NPSA
- Building and Infrastructure | NPSA
- Windows and Glazed Facades | NPSA
- See, Check and Notify (SCaN) | ProtectUK
- Risk Management Process | ProtectUK
- National Stakeholder Menu of Tactical Options | ProtectUK

You can report any suspicious activity by using our quick and confidential online reporting tool, or you can call the Anti-Terrorism Hotline on 0800 789 321. In an emergency, dial 999.

If you have any general concerns about your security, contact your local police force in the first instance.

You can report extremist or terrorist online content through the GOV.UK online reporting mechanism: Report online material promoting terrorism or extremism - GOV.UK.

PAGE CATEGORY

NEWS