ProtectUK is not a reporting platform, but we can advise you how to report a crime or incident.

ProtectUK is not a reporting platform

ProtectUK offers free counter terrorism advice and guidance to ensure protective security measures can be implemented to keep the pubic safe.

If you want to report a crime or incident, you must contact your local police force or report online.

You can also find your local police force.

If you live in Scotland, you can search by postcode to find your relevant force, or you can report a crime online.

Reporting a crime or incident

If you need to contact the Police regarding a crime or incident, you can make a report online.

You can contact Crimestoppers by calling 0800 555 111 if you want to remain anonymous.

If you have seen or heard something that could potentially be related to terrorism, trust your instincts and report suspicious activity online.

In an emergency, or if you need urgent police assistance, you should always dial 999.

If you want to talk to your local police, get crime prevention advice, or report a crime that does not need urgent assistance, call 101.

Please consider your requests and remember ProtectUK is not a police reporting platform, and we are unable to assist in criminal allegations or reports of crime.
